

Glass

Use clean water or glass cleaner for normal cleaning of the surface. Subsequently, polish the glass dry with a microfiber cloth to avoid limescale stains and streaks on the surface.

Special consideration

Do not use abrasive, corrosive, acidic or alkaline cleaners as they may damage the glass surface and cause scratches. It is not recommended to use sharp tools for cleaning as this can also cause damage and deep scratches in the glass surface.

